Subject: 2022 Initial Water Allocation for Irrigable Land

Effective June 1, 2022 and in accordance with resolution passed by the District's Board of Directors on May 11, 2022 the allocation for irrigable farm land for the 2022 primary irrigation season has been set at 15 inches per acre including tax-exempt entities that own irrigable land.

Irrigation water will be released from Caballo Dam on June 1, 2022, and should arrive in the El Paso vicinity by June 6, 2022, to begin the irrigation season. Properties under 2 acres of irrigable land, within the District boundaries, are allocated to receive 3 irrigations and will be delivered according to the schedule.
